Wells Fargo offers reward for suspect leads in Bank Robbery # 9

Case: 09-1521155

Date: Monday, June 1, 2009

Time: 2:07 p.m.

Location: 3100 Block of Windsor Road

Narrative:

Wells Fargo is offering a reward of Up To $5,000 for original information leading to the identification, arrest, and conviction of the individual(s) who robbed the Wells Fargo Store located at 3105 Windsor Rd. in Austin, TX on June 01, 2009.

Verification that original information has led to identification, arrest and conviction in a robbery case is provided to Wells Fargo by the primary investigating law enforcement agency, which also recommends the amount to be paid. In most cases, a reward offer is valid up to 12 months after the date a crime has been committed. When a case involves multiple verified informants, rewards are shared.

On Monday, June 1, 2009 a suspect entered the bank displayed a weapon and demanded cash. The suspect left the scene on foot with an undisclosed amount of cash.

The suspect is described as:

White Male
Blue Eyes
5'10"

He was last seen wearing a black ski mask, a blue button down shirt with the sleeves rolled up and blue jeans.
